

Indiana's law prohibitibg unwanted calls into the home has worked very well. I am against opening up my home to unwanted calls from banks or any other group.

I am especially against any recorded call from any group, including those who are presently allowed to make them. This includes all political parties.